

WVNET

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

The position serves the West Virginia Network (WVNET), located at 837 Chestnut Ridge Road, Morgantown, West Virginia, 26505.

| | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Date | August 25, 2017 |
| Position Title | Programmer Developer |
| Classification | Non-classified, full time, permanent, benefits eligible position |

Duties and responsibilities

As a Programmer Developer you will design, create and modify software applications and related components according to specifications.

- Plan, design, implement and modify applications
- Assist with planning of overall strategies for application development.
- Work on projects including User Interface design, database design, Application Program Interfaces, style sheet enhancement, application logic, interactions with other applications, Quality Assurance and documentation.
- Set up and enhance application development environments
- Design application servers. Create failover systems and load balancing
- Analyze, review and modify applications by designing, maintaining, documenting, testing, developing and monitoring
- Create and modify web sites
- Deliver presentations and training to customers and co-workers

Knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs)

- Good understanding of application design and construction
- Knowledge of PHP, MYSQL, Javascript, jquery, Laravel, AngularJS, JAVA and other development languages
- Knowledge of HTML, XHTML, CSS, and other web technologies
- Knowledge of Git version control system and its use with editors such as SublimeText
- Knowledge of LINUX operating system
- Proficiency with major web browsers: IE, Firefox, Chrome, Safari, Opera
- Familiarity with Content Management Systems, especially Wordpress
- Skills using computer-based graphics applications
- Mobile application development for iPhone and Android
- Written communications skills for creating web content and documentation
- Good interpersonal communications skills to work with customers and staff members
- Knowledge of Apache web server and Node.js

Education and experience requirements

- Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science, Computer Engineering or Communications
- Demonstrated application development and web development capabilities (show us some applications and sites you created)

Salary: $40,000-53,000

EEO/AA

WVNET

Application process: Submit a cover letter and resume along with examples of applications and web sites you've created. Submit all information via e-mail to Mr. Bob Roberts at recruiting@mail.wvnet.edu with "Programmer Developer" in the subject line.