

WVNET is a computing and networking service center, providing extensive computing services for higher education, in one of the best small cities in the US (see <http://www.morgantownwv.gov/>).

Date October 5, 2016
Position Title Lead Systems Administrator
Classification Non-classified, full time benefits eligible position

WVNET is looking for a Lead Systems Administrator with a combination of skills in the following areas:

- VMWare expertise including installation and configuration.
- Windows Server Administration
- Strong development skills, particularly shell scripting and automation (such as puppet)
- Disaster recovery including Site Recovery Manager Administration
- Cisco UCS expertise.
- Linux Systems Administration
- Office 365 Administration
- A love of technology and learning on the bleeding edge

required

If you are strong in these areas and desire to work in an exciting environment serving education, research, and non-profits with all of the above services and more, please forward your resume to Bob Roberts at recruiting@mail.wvnet.edu with Lead Systems Administrator in the subject line.

WVNET Offers

- Over 7 weeks of vacation leave and holiday leave per year
- Competitive starting salary
- 18 days per year of sick leave
- Comprehensive health, retirement, and insurance plans
- Excellent training opportunities